2. Without going into the details, it is pertinent to point out that there is quite a story on []. In searching for missing Government property, [] personal effects were opened [] and certain items which might be Government property were found. These were removed and packed separately. A Board of Officers exonerated [] of any charge in possessing these items, some of which were identified as Government property, and returned to stock. It is possible that some of the missing property may have become mixed into these items. 25X1A9A 25X1A9A
